

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's telephone privacy law! Before signing up for the no call list, we received calls every evening and throughout the weekends. This law has ensured that we are not disturbed by unsolicited phone calls for products/services we neither want nor need. It is my wish that this law could be enacted at the federal level, it has improved our leisure time at home a lot!